ESSAYS:

During your time at Farrell, which class/teacher has been your favorite or has made the biggest impression on you? Please explain.

Name one person you admire and explain how they have impacted your life or inspired you?

Bill Micciulli was a loving husband to a beautiful wife and the father of two beautiful daughters. He was a very successful businessman who found the proper balance in life between family, work and fun. He was an exceptional scholar athlete as well. Bill attended Monsignor Farrell where he graduated in 1989. He led the 1989 Baseball Lions to the CHSAA championship game. Bill was a loyal and dedicated Farrell Lion. Bill then went on to Fairfield University, where he graduated in 1993. At Fairfield, Bill led the 1993 Stags to the ECAC Conference Tournament Championship. Bill is loved by all of those with whom he made contact with. This scholarship was set up to help a student who has similar qualities to those of our friend Bill and this Foundation was set up to carry on and honor his name.

Please explain why you are deserving of this scholarship. Be sure to include aspects from your academic and extracurricular life. (Attach additional sheets, if necessary)
